FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1857.

GOOD FRIDAY.—The present week is crowded with anniversaries of vast moment and the most thrilling interest to the religious world. But that which exceeds them all in importance—which most tenderly touches all of the moral sensibilities of man—which commemorates the most sublime event that ever transpired on earth—which is at once full of the deepest pathos and the grandest tragedy—that anniversary occurs to-day. This is known in the ecclesiastical calendar as Good Friday. It is kept sacred as the day upon which the Savior of Mankind died upon the cross in expiation of the sins of the world.

The anniversary is not properly recognized by any other sects than the Episcopalians and Catholics.
Why a day of such moral grandeur is not regarded with more interest by all classes of pious people, we cannot imagine.

To-day religious services will be held in the various Catholic and Episcopal Churches of the city.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN NEW YORK.—Hitherto the law in New York has been that niggers might vote if they possessed a specified amount of property.
The present New York Legislature, resenting the late decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, has changed the law so that hereafter all niggers may vote in that State whether they have property or not. The next time the New York Black Republicans get mad, they will probably change the law again so as to give each nigger two votes. And, if they keep on getting mad, no doubt they will ultimately give to their niggers the exclusive right of suffrage.

Some may think that Black Republicanism might find a less ridiculous and more decent mode of showing its spunk. We don't know however but that, in a State where the whites are mean enough to submit to nigger suffrage, nigger government is about as good as any other.

Lord John Russell, in a recent speech, opposed the idea of exempting commercial vessels from naval warfare. He remarked: "A stipulation not to use our naval force against a commercial vessel would be a great provocation to war. You would be exposed to more frequent wars, and the cause of humanity would not be promoted."

Of course it cannot have escaped the sagacity of Lord John Russell that the argument he uses to justify the seizure and confiscation of private property on the ocean would be just as good if used to justify the seizure and confiscation of private property on land.

The Albany Statesman says: Col. Fremont has acted like a very sensible man since his recent political defeat. He has to all appearance dismissed the affair from his mind.

It seems to us that the American people have treated Col. Fremont very much as he has treated "the affair."

THE NEW COUNCIL.—Mayor Barbee has issued notices calling for a meeting of the newly elected Board of Aldermen and Common Council at their respective halls to-night. After organization, various matters of public interest will demand attention.

Mayor Wood, it is said, intends resigning the mayorality of New York, in consequence of the Legislator having passed the new charter and police bills.

The horticulturalists in the neighborhood of New Albany think that the fruit was not so badly injured as supposed. There is yet a prospect for an average crop.

George Peabody was in Indianapolis on Tuesday, and received visits from the dignitaries of that city and State.

William Campbell was killed at a house of ill fame in Pittsburgh, on Monday night, by James Jones. Both were men of bad character.

Capt. Jeremiah Baldwin, charged with forgery at Memphis, has been acquitted.

Our readers already know the Rev. Mr. Hemp-stead as one of the most powerful poets of the nation:

A WINTER NIGHT.

BY REV. T. HEMSTEAD.

A glorious bard has sung the evening wind
In tones that warble like a brook in June;
But had he wrapped the "drapery of his couch About him" in this bleak and haunted room,
This antique, melancholy, moaning room,
Where I lie down to dream, but not to sleep,
And half afraid, see my expiring lamp Shoot its vague, ghastly flicker o'er the walls
Like the thin robes of spectres in a dance Around a felon's grave, and flit and bend
Before the insolent and prying gust;
Had that sweet hard lain down to sleep and dream
In this antique, dim, melancholy room,
He would have heard a wilder voice than leaves, Kissing each other's foreheads in the dusk
Of Summer eve, or dance of flitting breeze, Or hoarse murmur of the restless waves.
Roar, roar! Great God, how Thou dost make the winds,
The free, wide-winged, thundering winds of heaven,
A mighty organ-pipe to roll Thy praise.
Thy power and glory through the frightened world Shuddering, I draw my weary frame behind Its yarrow shield, responsive to the jar,
The thrill, and horror of the oak-ribbed walls
And shivering pines far out upon the waste That writhe and groan at every wounded nerve.
The air boils as it never boiled before,
Since God threw wide the windows of the sky
And hurled such belching darkness, hail,
And thunder rain, as blanch'd the cheeks of blots
From out the old world's guilt-bedraggled skirts.
Tossing her rock-walled hills as winds, dead leaves, Whelming her vineyards, towers, and golden vales,
Her temples, herds, and thrones, within a gulf
Of slimy, voiceless, starless nothingness.
Rave, rave, ye winds! and clatter the name,
The power, and terror of your master, God!
For there is One that holds you in His hand Or bids you forth to pile the world with wrecks.
To-night, my soul is leaning toward the shrine
Of that resplendent, sweet idolatry
Which drew the hearts and hoary forms of Eld—
The glorious bard and wild-eyed priestesses That roamed amidst Dodona's oaks and heard In Tempe's olive shades the song of nymphs,
And charmed the pipes of voluptuous Pan,
And saw in clouds and the red path of storms
The wrathful brow and lifted arm of Jove.
Their present eyes interpreted the light Of the Undying Dream, the Life to come;
And in the calm and fiery love of gods
Of that radiant, wandering through the solemn groves,
In flowers and stars and smiling autumn winds That shook the fruitage from the mellow boughs,
And shouting War that blackens the green hills,
And dashes all their limpid purls with blood,
They saw a living likeness of themselves In passion, love, and the grim lust of power.
And I, to-night, can deem the caped winds Have leaped forth at the loud signal-blow
Of their great lord against the dungeon walls
In wrath and vengeance bearing sword and shield,
The left front and the right loved of gods
To seize and tear the royal crinoid folds That robe the rocky shoulders of the hills That jar again! Heaven! when did mortal car Rock on the surges of so fierce a wall?
Or fancy eddy down the boiling gulf
Of sound so iron-tongued and thunder-barbed?
All, all the groans that rocked old Canaan's hills,
The black-lipped cannon whose tremendous growl Rent the sun sulphur-dome of Waterloo, Were Zephyr-notes borne by your mountain harp,
Of awful shades and hollow bugling winds, Hell from beneath is moved to walk the earth,
And flute her drunken joy along the crags!
The stars have toppled from their diamond thrones
And drowned their fiery forehead in the sea Of frozen darkness and chaotic night—
The keen gusts seize the burly, spectral drifts
And scourge them forth in sheets of tingling fog, Till the wide atmosphere and haggard founts Seem one black sea of hungry, wrangling sounds,
And this bleak hill, the lone, beleaguered isle,
On which the frosty and fiery elements cling Like some enormous, grim, funeral bell, Rung by the red and bonny hands of ghouls,
To peal their triumph o'er a shattered world!
And I, in trembling, ask the distant winds,
The hissing, trenchant snows and my own heart,
How shall another summer morning burst
Or violet open in the icy vale?

LITCHFIELD, Conn.

AN ESCAPED NICARAGUAN SOLDIER.—Mr. Chas.
H. Bull, late of Walker's service, has just returned to this city, having escaped from the great filibuster and his army several months since. He was accompanied by Joseph Winters, also formerly of this city.
They were greatly embarrassed in making their flight, and suffered almost unparalleled hardships.
For days they were without any description of food and then were forced to subsist on raw mule flesh in a state of partial decomposition. They finally, after many narrow escapes from starvation in mountain passes and dreary valleys and plains, reached the capital of Costa Rica. There they were hospitably received and entertained. After remaining some time at Costa Rica, the government of that country forwarded them to Panama, and thence paid their expenses to New Orleans.

Mr. Bull represents the entire Costa Rican population as highly incensed against Walker, and perfectly united in the determination to take him, dead or alive.

ASSAULT UPON A LADY.—Yesterday afternoon there was a very interesting and somewhat exciting trial before Esquire Clements. The parties engaged were Mrs. Henry N. Sands, who charged Capt. Geo.
P. Frazier with having violently assaulted and otherwise maltreated her. These persons reside a few miles above the city, and are neighbors. The hogs and cattle of Mrs. S. trespassed upon the farm of Capt. F. The latter was about to shoot them, when the lady appeared with a revolver in her girdle.
An affray took place, and Capt. F. was more rude than gallant. The magistrate bound him over to answer for the assault.

Mrs. Sands has instituted a civil suit against Capt.
Frazier, laying her damages at $5,000. Mr. Wolfe was counsel for Frazier, and Messrs. Rousseau for Mrs. S.

NOVEL SUIT.—The cost of bringing a child into the world varies according to circumstances, latitude and other important matters. Yesterday a jury in the county court fixed it at $15. A German physician, in the upper part of the city, had sued one of his countrymen for $60, the fee in one of these interesting cases that adds to the population and misery of the world. The husband objected to such an extraordinary child. All of the distinguished members of the medical faculty in the city were called in to testify as to the value of the services rendered.
Much learning, science, and medicine was expended upon the jury, and the opinion of the doctors seemed to be that the charge was altogether just. The jury, however, cut down the fee to the moderate dimensions mentioned above.

The trial of Eckel and Mrs. Cunningham has been set in the court of oyer and terminer at New York for the first Monday in May.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

PORTLAND TELEGRAPH LINE.

Office at Portland, Delme's Drug Store, on the wharf.

Office at Shippingport, in the Canal Office.

Office at Louisville, Union Telegraph Office.

TRADEWATER COAL.—At Tradewater Island, two miles below Caseyville. Price 7 cents. m30 d12

The river fell an inch in the twenty-four hours ending last evening. There were then 6 feet 3 inches water in the canal, and 3 feet 7 inches on the falls.

Sunk.—On Monday morning the steamer Latrobe, bound for Pittsburgh, loaded with pig metal, in taking a wood flat in tow opposite Rush Run, twelve miles above Wheeling, ran on a stump and sunk instantly in ten feet of water, and is reported broken in two.

The Latrobe was purchased a few weeks since by Mr.
Zinn Smith, to run from Ironton to Pittsburgh, and is valued at $5,000. She was not insured. The carriage of her cargo (pig metal) to Pittsburgh was to be his first payment on the purchase of that steamer.

The Latrobe is an old boat, but has always been regarded as a staunch, reliable steamer. This loss, we fear, will be a serious drawback to Mr. Smith, her new owner.

Coalboat Sunk.—A coalboat belonging to Martin Walt, of Memphis, was sunk on Saturday night by striking the wreck of the A. L. Shotwell, at the head of "Paddy's Hen." Loss $1,400. The coal was intended for Memphis.

For New Orleans.—The steamer Rainbow, Capt.
Holcroft, leaves for New Orleans this evening. The R. has fine accommodations and attentive officers.
To Mr. Huston we are indebted for late papers and a copy of the manifest and memorandum.

For Memphis.—The great Memphis packet Northerner, Capt. J. F. Smith, will start for Memphis this evening. Mr. Archer, an accomplished gentleman, is the clerk. The Northerner has gained an enviable reputation along the Ohio and Mississippi since she entered the Memphis trade. On her late trip up from Memphis she attended to all her way business and gained on the Rainbow nearly four hours. We thank Mr. Archer for the useful favors.

For St. Louis.—The Alvin Adams, Capt. Lamb, is the regular packet for St. Louis to-day. The A. is the fleetest and one of the most splendid boats in the line.

The Jacob Strader is the mailboat for Cincinnati to-day.

The Diamond is the regular packet for Evansville this evening.

The D. A. Given was looked for last night, and if she arrived, will leave for Nashville this evening.
The Given is a regular packet.

The John Gault passed Smithland yesterday. She is due to-morrow morning, and is advertised to return to Nashville to-morrow evening.

The steamer Woodford passed Vicksburg yesterday, 38 hours out from New Orleans. This is very good running.

The Montgomery will be here this morning, and leave for New Orleans to-morrow.

Capt. Marshall has telegraphed from Evansville that the R. W. Adams will arrive at 11 o'clock this morning, and return to New Orleans to-morrow.

Sold.—The large sternwheeler Adriatic has been sold at St. Louis to Capt. Stackpole, for $25,000.

Capt. Holland's new boat for the Missouri river trade was towed to the city wharf yesterday, where she is to be completed. Capt. H. thinks that he will be able to finish her by the end of the month.

The following items we take from the New Albany Tribune of yesterday:

We learn that Capt. Hinkle contracted on Tuesday with Wible & Conover for the hull of a new boat for the Attakapas trade.

Capt. Sturgeon, of the steamer Empress, will contract in this city for a first class boat on his return from New Orleans.

NEWS FROM MALAGA.—The Washington Union of this morning, contains a letter from Malaga, dated 31st January, which says the Raisin crop has been very short, the last vintage being estimated at about 600,000 boxes Muscatels, whilst other descriptions show a still greater decrease, owing to a disease which has been very general. Prices have ruled very high, averaging $2 for R. M., and $2 25 for ordinary layers, for the American market. London layers $3 to $4 per box. Stock at the end of the year about 30,000 boxes. The Oil crop about an average. Wine very deficient. Freight to the United States dull at $8 per ton.

It is stated on the authority of letters from missionaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that a furious war is raging in Liberia, in the vicinity of Cape Palmas, between the colonists and the natives.
Thirty-seven American houses, and much property;
are stated to have been destroyed, and twenty-eight lives have been lost. All missionary and business matters were at a stand.

Gen. Canineau is out in a letter in the N. Y.
Times, in which he states as his belief that letters from Gen. Walker, Gen. Henningsen, and other officers to the United States have been intercepted by the English officials, and that Gen. Walker is now at the head of the de facto and only government of Nicaragua.

There were more emigrants in Liverpool, up to the 20th of March, waiting passage to America than were ever known in previous years, except in 1854. The price, which had averaged up to that time, £3 to £3 10s., was raised to £4 and £4 10s.
The fact that there was a scarcity of ships contributed to this rise in the price of passage.

We understand that Mr. T. G. Lloyd intends making a long tour through the State of Kentucky for the purpose of lecturing on the subject of temperance. We recommend him to the friends of temperance wherever he may travel. He has done a great deal of good in the temperance cause here.

The Deaf and Dumb Asylum of Indiana has been suspended, and the pupils returned to their various homes. This is in consequence of the Legislature failing to make the usual annual appropriations.

The case of Goepper, who was convicted in the County Court on the charge of bastardy, has been compromised by his paying the injured young woman $200.

The most important intelligence by the European steamer is, that the recent elections in England have resulted in favor of the present ministry.

YELLOW FEVER AT RIO.—The captain of the bark Nameaux, which arrived at New York on Saturday, fifty days from Rio, reports that yellow fever, in its worst form, was raging there, and that very few of the crews of northern vessels, trading there, escape an attack of the pestilence.

The Southern Bank of Kentucky has contracted with Mr. John Haley, of Frankfort, for the erection of a banking house at Russellville. It is to cost $22,000.

The frigate Niagara went into commission at New York, on Monday, and was ready for sea, with everything on board except her 12 swivel guns. She carries four 32's as signal guns, merely.

[From this morning's Journal.]

HALIFAX, April 9.

The steamship Niagara arrived from Liverpool with advices to the 28th ult., three days later than those of the Canadian.

The result of the election has been favorable to the government.

Russia has reduced the tariff on cotton and woolen goods one-half.

The Emperor of China disavows Viceroy Yeg's proceedings.

A battle took place between the Persian and British cavalry at Bushire, in which the Persians were routed.

The Niagara arrived at 30 minutes past 4 o'clock, P. M. Passed the steamer Persia when near Liverpool on the 28th, the steamer Emu of Cape Clear, and the steamer America on the 2d inst., in latitude 40.

The steamer City of Washington sailed on the 28th, and touched at Southampton on the same day.
England continues in the election ferment, but few members have been returned. Appearances favor Lord Palmerston.

The Board of Trade returns show a large percentage over last year's imports, a decrease in cotton and breadstuffs, and an increase in provisions and tobacco.

Bullion in Bank has slightly increased.

France.—But little business of importance has been transacted in Paris, the Conference meeting of the 24th being merely for the purpose of receiving Prussian propositions. Another meeting of the Conference was held on the 25th ult., to receive propositions from Switzerland, which differ from those received from the Prussian Government. An amicable settlement is confidently anticipated.

An expedition against the Kalorils has been projected, under the command of Marshal Baudouin.

It is reported that England has ceded to France the Longwood House and Napoleon's tomb at St.
Helena.

Spain.—The Spanish Government contemplates laying a submarine telegraph between Cuba and the United States.

The first division of the fleet to invade Mexico would sail about the 28th of March for Havana.

Germany.—The German powers decline intervention with other European powers in the quarrel between Denmark and the confederation, on the ground that the question is purely federal, in which they,
as well as Denmark, act as members of the confederation.

Prussia and France are said to be favorable to Denmark in this dispute.

Austria.—The Austrian government, in recalling its representative from the Court of Turin, has addressed a circular dispatch, setting forth reasons for withdrawal, to all its different agents in European courts, stating that the Vienna Cabinet is dissatisfied with Count Cavour's reply to its complaints of the Piedmontese press, and of the tolerance with which Sardinia treats their attacks.

It also sees new offense in the language used by Sardinia on the occasion of the debates relative to the fortification of Alessandria.

The dispatch adds that Austria has become convinced that Piedmont seeks to head the insurrectionary movement in Italy, which, if successful, would be the destruction of Austrian dominion in Italy.

In view of these facts, Austria deems that her dignity will not permit her to maintain official relations with Sardinia; nevertheless, this measure will not be followed by others of a more hostile character, as Austria is determined to do nothing to compromise the peace of Europe.

Russia.—It is reported that Russia again refuses to admit the British consuls to the Black Sea, until the allied evacuation is completed.

Prussia.—The insurrection is spreading. The insurgent at Piedmont has seized the Shah's uncle, and threaten to kill him unless he shall be ransomed.

CHICAGO, April 9.

At the election of officers of this county the Republican ticket was generally successful. Whetton (Republican) is reelected Chief Justice of Wisconsin. Majority unknown. Nothing definite from Iowa. Dubuque city Democratic except one ward, in which there is a Republican gain. Davenport city Democratic, county Republican.

The Illinois Central and Rock Island Railroad connection to LaSalle is completed.

CINCINNATI, April 9, P. M.

River rising slowly, with about 9 feet water in the channel. The weather is dark and lowering, indicating more rain, though cool. Wind from the northwest.

The Chamber of Commerce to-day passed resolutions welcoming George Peabody to Cincinnati, and tendering him a dinner. He is now stopping at the Burnet House.

WASHINGTON, April 9.

The administration has had under consideration the subject of Indian difficulties in Florida, and such measures are now in progress as to lead to the belief that their removal will be peacefully effected.

Mr. Denver, ex-Congress of California, and now in Ohio, has been notified of his appointment as Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

It is asserted upon good authority that the general question of appointment of Foreign Ministers will not be considered by the Cabinet for a month or two hence.

EVANSVILLE, April 9, P. M.

Boats down.—North Star, Southerner, Jas. Wood, and Prairie Rose.

Boats up.—Memphis, J. P. Tweed, James Montgomery, R. W. Adams, Bay City, and Melnotte.

Weather clear, mild, and pleasant.

ST. LOUIS, April 9, P. M.

in all the upper streams. Weather cool, clear, an pleasant. Business very lively.

PITTSBURGH, April 9, P. M.

River unchanged since noon. Weather damp and cloudy.

THE RELIGION OF THE ST. LOUIS EDITORS.—We find the following in the St. Louis Herald in regard to the religion of the brethren of the press in that city: The Herald says.

The editor of the Leader is a Catholic; the editor of the Democrat a Jew; the editor of the Republican an old fogey; the editor of the Anzeiger an In-del; and the editor of the News a Mohammedan.

At the second annual meeting of the New Albany Young Men's Christian Union, the following officers were elected:

C. C. Hine, President; William Keller, Vice President; W. H. Daniel, Corresponding Secretary; A.
Castlen, Recording Secretary; J. M. Day, Treasurer; Samuel Avery, Librarian. Library Committee—F. C. Johnson, R. R. Town, W. T. Courtney, Josiah Bliss, and Rev. Chas. Hutchinson.

EMIGRATION TO CALIFORNIA.—We take the following from the New York Times of Tuesday:

The United States mail steamship Illinois left New York Monday, at 2 1/2 o'clock P. M., for Aspiwall. The Illinois carried about six hundred passengers. So great has been the demand for passages that the tickets were all sold two days prior to the day of sailing, and many who delayed coming to the city until the last day or two, failed to secure their passage, and were obliged to wait over until the 20th of the month for the George Law. The Nicaragua or Morgan line of steamers has been hauled off the route. It is reported that these steamers have sunk the Company upon an average from fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars a trip, making an aggregate loss of nearly a million of dollars since the unfortunate difficulties commenced in Nicaragua. The earnest difficulties commenced in Nicaragua, at low fares, has never been a paying business, and nothing but the support derived from government for carrying the mails has kept the lines in existence.

The usual amount of a vinding was practised upon the passengers in the sale of tickets by the Illinois.
Some cases of great hardship occurred. It is estimated that three hundred persons are swindled every month in this city in the purchase of tickets for California, the aggregate of their losses being some $6,000 per month.

A KIDNAPPED FREEMAN.—The Vicksburg Sentinel has the following facts concerning a person who ought to be well known to certain parties in Kentucky. It says:

A petition was, on the 5th inst., presented to the Judges of the High Court of Errors and Appeals at Jackson on behalf of Severa Lugo, who claimed to be a citizen of Mexico, praying for a writ of habeas corpus. Lugo states that he is a Mexican by birth, and came over to the United States with some of the volunteers returning from the Mexican war, when he was about seven years old, (he returned with the body of Col. McKee), that he was kidnapped in Kentucky and taken to New Orleans and sold as a slave, since which time he has passed through the hands

EVENING BULLETIN. FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, 1857.

AMERICAN WATCHES.—It is generally known that watches of American manufacture are now coming into extensive use. They are characterized by several features of special peculiarity. The first of these is the absence of the fusee and chain. These parts, which were very necessary for equalizing the force in the old verge watch, are continued by the English in the modern lever watch, but in the Swiss watches, which perform so excellently, no such parts exist. The second feature is such an arrangement of the parts as to lessen the liability of the watch to stop from the pressure of foreign substances, and at the same time to facilitate the discovery of any cause of derangement, almost the entire train being fully open to view. The third and distinguishing feature is the principle of making every watch and every part the duplicate of every other. This plan has been so far adhered to that every movement will fit every case, and many parts can be transferred from watch to watch without alteration. Any deficiencies in the carrying out of this principle are in great part remedied by a system of registration at the factory.

FROM ALLEN COUNTY.—A correspondent in Allen county writes us that a heavy snow fell in that section on Sunday evening, April 6th, after which the ground froze to the depth of an inch. An abundance of ice is yet to be found on the ponds and creeks. It is thought that but little fruit will be raised in the county this year.

The potato crop in that region will be almost an entire failure, owing to the scarcity of seed. A sufficiency was put up, but the rot appeared, causing great ruin.

Our correspondent also mentions the singular fact of Messrs. James & O. H. P. Tinson, of Allen county, having a mare that foaled three healthy mule colts.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.—At a meeting of the proprietors of the Bank of England on the 19th of March, the net profits for the half year ending February 28th were stated to be £686,330 2s 10d, and a half-yearly dividend of four and a half per cent., without deduction on account of the income tax, was declared, payable April 6th. The amount of Rest, after deducting the dividend, will be £3,064,670.

D'ARREST'S COMET.—The small telescopic comet, discovered at Leipzig February 23d, and in this country a month later, can now be seen with a telescope of moderate power, "although it will require a clear sky to be able to see it to advantage." It was nearest the Sun, March 21st. It presents the usual cometary appearance. The nebulous head is about a minute in diameter, and the nucleus is as bright as a star of the seventh magnitude.

DISCOVERY OF A CAVE.—In mining for lead, a few days ago, in the vicinity of Blue Mounds, Wis., Mr. Carpenter opened a somewhat remarkable cavern, at a depth of sixty to seventy feet in the solid rock. The cave was filled with bones, of a kind not recognized by the naturalists of that vicinity, among which were a number of teeth 2 to 2½ inches square, with prongs more than an inch long.

THE PRESBYTERY OF LOUISVILLE convened at the Walnut Street Presbyterian Church in this city, on Tuesday evening, and was opened with an eloquent sermon by Rev. J. V. Cosby, of Bardonia, Ky., after which the Presbytery was organized by the election of Rev. F. Senour, of this city, moderator, and Rev. Richard Valentine, of Newcastle, clerk.

THE FLOATING PALACE.—We understand that the Floating Palace of Spaulding & Rogers will arrive here and perform on the 28th and 29th of this month. The whole concern has been thoroughly renovated and lit up with gas.

FROM MEXICO.—We copy the following from the New Orleans Picayune of the 3d. The dates from the city of Mexico are up to the 16th ult.

The Mexican Extraordinary says the straightened circumstances of the Supreme Government have forced the suspension of payment at the Custom-Houses of Vera Cruz and the city of Mexico.

Postal communication, for a long time suspended, has been renewed between the port of Mazatlan, Culiacan, and the Mineral of Guadalupe. Calvo. British relations with Mexico continued in an unsettled state. Senor Montes, Minister of Foreign Relations, stood firm in the opinion that the acquittal of Senor Degollado by the Congress satisfies the provisions of the late agreement entered into between the Mexican Government and the British representative, when relations were renewed. It was not known what view the British Government would finally take of the matter.

The new constitution was promulgated on the 11th of March, anniversary of the adoption of the plan of Ayutla at Acapulco. The usual solemn ceremonies were observed on the occasion.

Gen. Blancarte has delivered himself up a prisoner to Gen. Parodi, now commanding in Guadalupe. He will be tried before a council of war.

The Indians in Durango continue their ravages without abatement. Murders, robberies, and outrages of the grossest nature are constantly reported. Gen. Yanes is acting vigorously in Sonora to counteract the "freebooting movements of lawless bands (bustlers) from the North."

Gen. Cadena has been named Commander-in-Chief of the State. The Vera Cruz diligence that arrived at the capital on the 2d was robbed at Acapulco. A holy father was one of the passengers, who the robbers did not spare. After relieving him of $400 in cash, the robbers required him to give them absolution. The other passengers were relieved of the greater portion of their wearing apparel.

M. Limantour, whose claim in California has given him a world-wide reputation, is in the city of Mexico. His suit has been deferred until July next, when it will come up for trial.

El Monitor assures us that General Santa Anna is in constant communication with Mexican emissaries. The papers, especially the Esperanza and Siglo, are filled with the liveliest discussions of the affair at Vicente, in which originated the pending difficulty with Spain. As to the finale of this difficulty, public opinion seems to be in suspense. From a cursory review of our large mail, we find no notice of preparation to meet the threatened invasion.

The published constitution seems to have given general satisfaction, except to the clergy, from whom resistance was expected. Numerous candidates for the Presidency had been named.

THE FROST SOUTH.—The Memphis Bulletin of the 7th says:

After a fall of considerable rain on Saturday night and Sunday, the weather suddenly turned very cold, and Sunday was one of the coldest ever before known here in April. Ice formed to over an inch in thickness, the ground was frozen solid enough to bear a loaded dray, and the fruit and young vegetation were completely killed. So far as we can learn, it made a clean sweep of the fruit of all kinds, and nearly every variety of garden vegetables will have to be replanted. The thermometer yesterday morning was several degrees below freezing point, and we fear that the blighting effects are still worse further South, where the season and vegetation are more advanced.

The Legislature of Massachusetts have passed a law making the testimony of an atheist a legal tender in the courts of this State.

PLAY HOUSES IN SHAKESPEARE'S TIME.—In Shakespeare's time there were no less than seven principal theatres in London. Besides such occasional houses as the Swan and the Rose. The Blackfriars, which Shakespeare joined in the first instance, and never left, was built in 1576. There was a space in front of turn coaches in, and part of the ground is still called Playhouse-yard. The Globe belonged to the same company, and was their summer house. There were playbills issued, containing only the name of the play. They were pasted up on posts, and hence the term "posters," now indiscriminately applied to all bills pasted up on walls. Hence also the term, "Knights of the Post," applied to the fellows who lurked about the posts at the lanes of court and the doors of the sheriff, ready to give fictitious bail or take false oaths. The Globe was open at the top; the pit, separated from the stage by a paling, was without floor or seats, and its occupants were called the "groundlings," whose "inexplicable dumb show and noise" are alluded to by Hamlet. There was a scaffold for a gallery, with boxes underneath; and the orchestra, consisting chiefly of trumpets, hautboys, cornets, recorders, and viols, were placed in a lofty balcony, or upper stage-box. The price of admission to the boxes was 1s, descending, in other parts of the house, to 6d, 2d, and 1d. The prices were doubled, and sometimes trebled, on the night of a new play.

The performance commenced at one; but the hour was afterwards altered to three, which continued through subsequent reigns to the 17th century. The proscenium was divided from the stage by a curtain which opened in the middle. At the first sound of the trumpet the curtain opened; at the third the performance commenced by Prologue coming in, in a long, velvet dress. There were traverses, or curtains, at the back of the stage, and a balcony to represent battlements or any other elevation that might be required. The changes of scene were indicated by sign-boards. The roof of the stage was painted sky blue to represent heaven; and when a starless or tempestuous night was required it was hung with black.

The stage was lighted by two branches, and the body of the house by cresset lights, formed of ropes, wreathed and piched, and placed in open iron lanterns, occasionally interspersed with wax tapers in the boxes.

The stage was strewn with rushes. Young gallants, entering through the tiring house, sat on stools on the stage, for they paid extra, to exhibit their finery and play at cards. The audience were generally very vociferous, playing at cards, eating fruit, and smoking tobacco.

When a tragedy was played the stage was hung in black. The performance generally lasted two hours and ended with a dance.

Actors were paid by shares—a primitive system still observed by many of the traveling booths in the country. It was estimated that a first-rate actor might realize about 9s a night; or about £30 a year. The average receipts of the Globe or Blackfriars, after deducting the daily expenses, amounting to 45s, had been estimated at about £9.

Authors' profits were derived either from the sale of their copyrights or by the proceeds of the second night of performance, afterwards changed to the third. Shakespeare is said to have received £5 for Hamlet, but the usual sum for a play was £3 13s 4d.

RARE SCANDAL.—Alexander M. Mitchell, alias Col. Mitchell, worth an income of $40,000, promises to marry Mrs. Shultz, but doesn't do it—Highly interesting case—Breach of Promise.—Mrs. Mary J. Shultz, of this city, commenced suit in the Circuit Court yesterday, for $50,000 damages, against Alexander M. Mitchell, of St. Joseph, for breach of promise of marriage. It appears from the petition of plaintiff, that she was engaged to defendant, and that the marriage was to have taken place last Monday, April 6, but that defendant refused to fulfill his engagement.—Intelligencer.

"And thereby hangs a tale," the upshot of which is that the plaintiff has not only suffered a breach of promise, but has been woefully deceived in other respects by this same Alexander M. Mitchell. The story goes that the courtship

"Brief as the lightning in the coldest night," lasted but about fifteen days. The plaintiff is a widow lady of good appearance, winning manners, and an income of twelve hundred dollars. Her home is in Weston. Her style is familiar with the boarders at Barnum's Hotel, and her acquaintances are ranked with the most "exclusive" of the city.

Alexander M. Mitchell is originally from Ohio. He departed that State to fight the Mexicans, and having returned like another troubadour from the wars, covered with glory and blood, he was duly presented with a huge broadsword, beautifully engraved. His preparations for years afterwards we are not advised of, but learn from his own representations that he is now a resident of St. Joseph, in this State, and is largely interested in several extensive tracts of land, and has an annual income of $40,000, which he desires the assistance of a wife to help him disburse. He is reported tall, has a striking countenance, cultivates the cringery tendencies of his face, wears merchant tailor clothes, carries himself high, a la militaire, and talks like a book. He came to the city more than a fortnight ago, and having, by some means, met the widow, concluded to "go in." The effort required some extraneous assistance, and by his own confession he had occasion, time and again, to take "sperrits." He pressed his suit with ardor, and in a very few days was the accepted man.

The engagement was not suffered to cool. The day was fixed (last Monday), the pastor, Dr. Rice, was engaged to perform the nuptials in his church. The lady made hurried but most expensive preparations. The rumor goes that her linen alone cost about twelve hundred dollars, and that a great many of her articles of dress were duly marked with the surname of her intended husband. Jewelry had been purchased by the Colonel to the value of $1,000, and presented to the widow, who, to hold it secure, locked it up in the safe at Barnum's. The report is that the diamond ring, by the destructive habits of inconsiderate youth and excessive indulgence of the passions, which undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for either business or society, and causing premature old age.

Persons abroad, by writing and stating their cases, with a fee enclosed (post-paid), can have the medicine sent to their address, with necessary directions for using the same. The strictest secrecy observed in all cases. At 111½ Broadway, New York, 9 o'clock in the morning and evening.

SADDLERY WAREHOUSE.—Among the notable improvements of our city is the new saddlery warehouse of Mr. C. Proal, No. 61 Third street. Mr. P. was burnt out last summer, and has just returned to the new store built on his old stand. His stock of harness, saddles, trunks, &c., is one of the finest ever opened in Louisville. We notice many new styles of everything pertaining to the trade, and some articles are really rare and beautiful. Mr. P. is determined to keep the very best of work, not only in the way of fine coach and buggy harness, &c., but also of dray and wagon harness, and hopes, by his superior workmanship and reasonable charges, to enjoy a liberal patronage. Certainly his store contains as fine a stock of goods as we ever saw, and, as a matter of sight-seeing to the curious in such matters, is well worth a visit. The store is fitted up with elegant cases and drawers, well adapted to the business. They are the workmanship of the enterprising firm of Messrs. Young & Paul, on Second street, and reflect great credit on their skill and ability. We commend Mr. P. to the notice of our citizens and their friends in want of harness, &c.

LADIES' FURS AT REDUCED PRICES.
 HAYES, CRAIG, & CO. are making quite a stir among the ladies in consequence of the low price of their furs. Having on hand much too large a stock for the season, and much too fine for this market—at least the ladies think so—they do not wish to humbug their customers by "selling at cost"—have reduced their prices very materially, and are now furnishing the ladies with furs of every description at much lower prices than they were before. There certainly is nothing more reasonable for such purposes; and gentlemen inclined that way will find our furs so low that they are within the reach of all.
